Cedar Valley Ghost Hunters
Wednesday, November 7 at 7:00 pm

Join us in the Meeting Room to listen to the Cedar Valley Ghost Hunters talk about their adventures in searching out and documenting paranormal activity in Iowa and beyond. These objective and experienced investigators search out evidence in a professional manner, similar to what you've seen on television. Join us for this presentation, and bring your questions.
This program is sponsored by the Friends of the Cedar Falls Public Library.

CFPL Iowa Author Series
From Webster City to Hollywood: The Best Years of Our Lives
November 14 at 5:30 pm

The CFPL Iowa Author Series presents a feature-length showing of "The Best Years of Our Lives" (1946), winner of seven Academy Awards, with commentary by Dr. Grant Tracey, Professor of Film Studies, Creative Writing and Popular Culture @ The University of Northern Iowa.
Dr. Tracey will explore the film's Iowa connection to writer MacKinlay Kantor and to Webster City, the film's depiction of how returning veteran servicemen were forced to adapt to a much-changed environment, how American society had undergone a sweeping metamorphosis and, on the home front, how women's roles were irretrievably redefined.
Join us in the Large Meeting Room for a cinematic masterwork, delicious cinnamon rolls and orange juice.
This program was made possible by Friends of the Cedar Falls Public Library.
